

Nordic Network for Philosophy of Medicine and Medical Ethics

Final conference

5-7 October 2011

Senate Hall
Vilnius University

Schedule

Day 1 (Wednesday, 5 Oct)
1:00-1:30 p.m.	Registration Coffee and refreshments
1:30-1:45 p.m.	Opening remarks Lennart Nordenfelt Eugenijus Gefenas
1:45-2:30 p.m.	Plenary presentation 1 Lennart Nordenfelt A holistic concept of health and its relation to welfare Chair xxx
2:30-3:15 p.m.	Plenary presentation 2 Eugenijus Gefenas Equitable access to health care in the Baltic States: the ideal that has never been realized? Chair xxx
3:15-3:50 p.m.	Coffee break
Country reports Chair: Lennart Nordenfelt

3:40-4:00 p.m.	Denmark Peter Rossel
4:00-4:10 p.m.	Estonia Margit Sutrop and Aime Keis
4:10-4:20 p.m.	Finland Pekka Louhiala
4:20-4:30 p.m.	Iceland Vilhjálmur Arnason
4:30-4:40 p.m.	Latvia Vija Sile, Vents Silis and Guntis Kilkuts
4:40-4:50 p.m.	Lithuania Eugenijus Gefenas and Vilius Dranseika
4:50-5:00 p.m.	Sweden Ingemar Nordin
5:00-5:10 p.m.	Norway Per Nortvedt
07:30 p.m.	Dinner

Day 2 (Thursday, 6 Oct)
	Session 1 Philosophy of Medicine 1 Chair: Vilius Dranseika	Session 2 Clinical Ethics Chair: Eimantas Peičius
9:00-9:30 a.m.	Henrik Lerner Comparing Veterinary and Human Medicine: some examples	Lisa Guntram Normality, Relationality and Negotiations in Narratives of Uterine and Vaginal Agenesis
9:30-10:00 a.m.	Raimo Puustinen Conceptual Thinking in Medicine - Implications for Philosophy of Medicine	Aime Keis Ethical issues of personalized medicine
10:00-10:30 a.m.	Mari Stenlund Is there a right to hold a delusion? Delusions as a challenge of human rights discussion	Martin Gunnarson Chronic Illness, Invasive Treatments and Positive Thinking: Falling Ill with Kidney Failure in Stockholm and Riga
10:30-11:00 a.m.	Coffee break

11:00-11:30 p.m.	Ingemar Nordin Decision Making and Evidence Based Medicine	Elin Palm Informal care in the light of Personal Health Monitoring Technology
11:30-12:00 p.m.	Kristin Zeiler Bringing the Lived Body to Medical Ethics Education: Virtue Ethics and Phenomenology of the Body in a Dialogue on How to Learn to See to the Suffering Other	Heidrun Wulfekühler Some reflections on the importance of virtue ethics for nursing
12:00-12:30 p.m.	Per Nortvedt Moral Realism and Clinical Health Care	Eimantas Peicius and Svitrigaile Grinceviciene Patient Interests in Physician-Pharmacist Collaborative Relationship: what values in play?
12:30-13:00 p.m.	Rolf Ahlzén and Petra Gelhaus Care versus Cure - a Misguided Opposition	Ástridur Stefánsdóttir Cesarean section; maternal choice or professional decision
13:00-2:30 p.m.	Lunch
	Session 3 Philosophy of Medicine 2 Chair: Henrik Lerner	Session 4 Social Aspects of Healthcare Chair: Eugenijus Gefenas
2:30-3:00 p.m.	Petra Gelhaus Aging - a fatal disease?	Zane Linde Patient safety in Latvia: social and ethical aspects
3:00-3:30 p.m.	Vilius Dranseika Duty of Care and the Doctrine of Doing and Allowing	Anders Nordgren The web-advertisement of companies offering personal health monitoring
3:30-4:00 p.m.	Vents Silis Philosophy of Medicine and Medical Ethics - Adding a Sociological Dimension	Janne Nikkinen Health Care Rationing Debate - Problems and Difficulties
4:00-04:30 p.m.	Coffee break
	Session 5 Research Ethics Chair: Asta Čekanauskaitė	Session 4 Continued
4:30-5:00 p.m.	Kristi Lõuk Biobank research ethics: towards the rise of authentic trust and ethical arguments and fall of economic and pragmatic arguments. The case of Estonian Genome Foundation	Signe Mezinska Responsibility in application of reproductive technologies: the Latvian case
5:00-5:30 p.m.	Asta Čekanauskaitė The problem of understanding the information provided in informed consent forms for research	Pier Jarsma An open future or elimination of autism: state policies or liberal eugenics?
5:30-6:00 p.m.	Kadri Simm The concepts of common good and public interest: from Plato to biobanking

07:30 p.m.	Conference dinner
------------	-------------------

Day 3 (Friday, 7 Oct)
9:00-9:45 a.m.	Plenary presentation 3 Vilhjálmur Arnason Personalizing Medicine: A Threat to Solidarity? Chair xxx
9:45-10:30 a.m.	Plenary presentation 4 Margit Sutrop Changing ethical frameworks: From Individual Rights to the Common Good? Chair xxx
10:30-11:00 a.m.	Coffee break
11:00-12:00 p.m.	Discussion on the future of the Network Chair: Lennart Nordenfelt
12:00-12:15 p.m.	Closing remarks Lennart Nordenfelt Eugenijus Gefenas
12:30 p.m.	Lunch