

Philosophy of medicine and medical ethics

Final Programme Nordforsk network conference

home Nordic Network for Philosophy of Medicine and Medical Ethics

Linköping 2009, March 4-6

Place: Missionskyrkan, Linköping
Participants
March 4, 2009

 12:00 Lunch at Missionskyrkan

13:15 General introduction to the conference Lennart Nordenfelt

13:30 What is philosophy of medicine? Lennart Nordenfelt

 13:50 Philosophy of medicine/medical ethics – where is its place?
Sweden: Kristin Zeiler

14:10 Finland: Pekka Louhiala

14:30 Lithuania: Eimantas Peicius and Indra Giraite

14:50 Estonia: Andres Soosaar

 15:10 Coffee

15:40 Denmark: Michael Norup

16:00 Norway: Jan-Helge Solbakk

16:20 Iceland: Vilhjálmur Arnason

16:40 - 17:00 Discussion

19:00 Welcome snacks at Hälsans hus, The University Hospital, Linköping
March 5, Parallel sessions

Time	Philosophy of Medicine	Research ethics
Chair	Ingemar Nordin	Stellan Welin
08:30-08:55	Kirsten Hansen: Evidence in complementary medicine	Vilhjálmur Arnason: Participation, protection, policy
09:00-09:25	Henrik Lerner: A definition of health for animals that resembles the view of George Canguilhem on human health	Peter Rossel: Ethical aspects of pre-randomization in clinical trials
09:30-09:55	Ingemar Nordin: A non-inductive view on double blind tests: what do they show?	Kristi Louk: Ethics committee of the Estonian e-health database
10:00-10:30	Coffee	Coffee
10:30-10:55	Andres Soosaar: Concept of disease and human existence	Öivind Michelsen: On the notion of moral groups in genetic research
11:00-11:25	Mari Stenlund: The psychotic individual's freedom of belief, opinion and thought	Stellan Welin: Two paradigms for donating body materials
11:30-11:55	Vilius Dranseika: Healthiness, Consciousness, Moral Goodness	Hanne-Maaria Rentola: "Human Natures" and "Human Identities" in Stem Cell Research Debate

11:55-13:00 Lunch

Time	Medicine and the welfare state/the clinical encounter	Biotechnology
Chair	Kristin Zeiler	Anders Nordgren
13:00-13:25	Margit Sutrop and Kadri Simm: Public and Private Interests in the Genomic Era: a Pluralist Approach	Fredrik Svenaeus: The body as gift, resource and commodity: Organ transplantation in the Baltic region
13:30-13:55	Eimantas Peicius: The development of ethical decision-making in health care professional and patient encounters	Björn Hofmann: Fallacies in techno-ethical rationality

14:00- Elin Martinsen: Medicine in another tune: On the concept of care in medicine	Salvör Nordal: Consumer genetics and professionalism
14:25- Coffee	Coffee
15:00- Jan-Helge Solbakk: Kairos and the art of medical dialectic	Kadri Simm: Benefit-sharing: an inquiry into justification
15:25- Lisa Guntram: Body, Gender, Identity and Change. Teenagers' lived experiences of bodily change due to ambiguous sex. A Ph.D-project description	Stellan Welin: In vitro meat: some moral issues
15:55- Break	Break
16:15- Kristin Zeiler and Anette Wickström: Why do 'we' perform surgery on newborn intersexual children? The phenomenology of the parental experience of getting a child with unclear sex	Indra Giraite: How private can genes be?
16:45- Erik Malmqvist and Kristin Zeiler: Cultural norms, autonomy and parents' decisions about surgery for children born with unclear sex - A phenomenological analysis

19:00 Dinner at Ekoxen hotelMarch 6, 2009

08:30 General information about the Network (Lennart Nordenfelt and Henrik Lerner)

09:00 Future network activities

The first workshop: Naturalized ethics and morality in an evolutionary perspective, Denmark 2009. (Peter Rossel)

09:30 The second workshop and a PhD course : Research ethics. Iceland 2010 (Salvör Nordal)

09:45-10:15 Coffee

10:15 PhD course: Knowledge in medicine - Questions in medical epistemology. Finland 2010 (Pekka Louhiala)

10:30 PhD course: Justice of access to genetic technology. Norway 2010/11 (Øivind Michelsen)

10:45 The final general conference. Lithuania (Vilius Dranseika)

11:00 Exchange of doctoral students

11:30 A Nordic/Baltic society for philosophy of medicine and medical ethics

12:00 Lunch

Page responsible: henrik.lerner@liu.se

Last updated: 2009-10-13